DEATH BY LIGHTNING.

During a frightful thunder storm Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock Tom T. Davis was instantly killed by lightning. Mr. Davis was standing in the door of his home on Ivy street holding a little child in his arms and another child was by his side when he was struck. His neck was broken and he sank to the floor dead. Neither of the children were hurt in the least. The deceased was about 25 years of age and was employed as shipping clerk by Lockett Bros. He leaves a widow and several small children. The remains were buried in Oak Hill Tuesday morning by the Jr. O. U. A. M., of which J. T. Browning and Virgil O'Dell, of the deceased was a member.
